

4 MUST USE STRATEGIES

TO BUILD LITERACY SKILLS

IN CHILDREN WITH AUTISM

THE AUTISM PROGRAM

of Illinois

TAP

JUNE 8
2019

WORKSHOP

Reading can be frustrating for children with autism, as well as their parents and teachers. This training will explain 4 strategies that can effectively decrease this frustration and provide an enjoyable and productive learning experience. Participants will learn how autism can impact a child's learning differently than a neurotypical individual and you will be better equipped with creative ideas to build and promote literacy skills in children with autism.
